Two Injured In Auto Accident

Dave Horning and Norman Slingerland received severe cuts and bruises in an automobile crash that occurred Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock on the county road between Frederic and Lovells.

Horning, driving his Ford sedan, collided with a panel truck of the Superior Potato Chip Company, driven by Carl G. Taracks of Alpena as the cars came over this low bid and that of the the hill in front of the Fink farm. Mr. Horning received a cut over cording to Engineer Norris, all the ridge of his nose and a gash four bids were very reasonable in the side of his head and Slingerland received an ugly wound tial saving over the estimate on his head as he went through made by the engineering firm of Ayers, Lewis, Norris & May of Ann Arbor in the acceptance of passenger in the Horning car, was uninjured. He was in Grayling that evening and asked Mr. Horning to drive him to his home in Frederic, which the latter did. On reaching Frederic Mr. Burke decided he wanted to go to a dance in Lovells and asked Mr. Horning to take him there and it was while traveling on the road to Lovells that the accident occur-

Dear Sir:

Crawford Co. Share Gas Tax Fund $2,546 News Reporter

State Highway Commissioner Murray D. VanWagoner announced this week distribution of $1. 275,000 in gasoline tax collections

The distribution covered the first half of the 1939 gasoline tax collections and represented that portion of the collections which are returned to counties to replace partial elimination of automobile weight tax collections.

The distribution gives Craw-ford county $2,546.46. Neighbor-ing counties get the following amounts: Otsego, $2,933; Oscoda, $2,338; Roscommon, $2,871; Kal-

Wayne county receives $448.117 which is the largest amount allocated to any one county. Kent county is second with $58,506.

City In Darkness Saturday Night

It was extremely dark in Grayling Saturday evening, beginning at 9:00 p. m. and continuing to 2:30 a. m., when a transformer of the Michigan Public Service Co. lines went out of commission. According to one of the employees of the Company it happened somewhere between Graying and Gaylord.

Without warning the city was plunged into utter darkness. was Saturday evening and the city was packed with people; stores were filled with customers, Rialto theatre was full to capacity, eating places, grills and taverns were full to overflowing.

To keep up with naw, drove to Mackinac Island the show, local musical groups Monday to spend the day with have altered their set-up and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson's sister, Mrs. Walker music to reach the demand of Mrs. Mrs. Matt Andrews and Mrs. the interested public.

For years the town band was made up of a variety of now unter Patricia Hope, are spending used instruments. The managers or directors of today's bands are constantly faced with the problem of balancing his musical organization. He can not be satisfied with ten cornets with a half dozen clarinets, a couple of alto horns, a bass, etc.

The band of today must be built up at all times from a foundation. Let us count the instruments in a fifty-piece balanced military and concert band The number of various instruments may be altered somewhat, but in some cases there are definite numbers. The clarinet section must be well fortified with twelve or fourteen instruments with cornets following second. The cornet being a very popular instrument must be watched carefully lest more than eight or nine will throw the band out of balance. A full choir of alto horns con ciete of four instruments possible the French horn should be used instead of the alto horn The trombone section should be represented with five or six slides. The baritone, always carrying an interesting part, needs only one or two players. Here again the euphonium is a much more substantial instrument (comparing with the alto horn and French horn).

ing band or the background of a symphonic band what is more spectacular than four or five sousaphones marching and playing in perfect rhythm.

The rhythm section must be watched very carefully lest too many snare drums drown out the rest of the music. On the march band should have about five snare drums, one bass drum, and one cymbal, but in concert the snare drum section should be cut down considerably. One or Mrs. Alfred Sorenson. Phone RR I, or order from Charles Cortwo such instruments will fill the 121-J. win. requirements of any concert

The shrill piccolo can produce a tone capable of penetrating the sound waves and reaching the human ear though the fifty-piece band be well fortified. Therefore one or two piccolos will fill the bill. These men executing the pencil-like instrument should also play flute as in concert work the latter instrument is more valuable.

There should be two oboes and two bassoons in a concert band While on the march these instru-ments are of little value because of their delicate tone.

The saxaphone, again a popur instrument, can be overdone in a band. There are at least a half dozen different saxaphon One of each is not needed, but could be very effectively used. Clarinets—12-14 Cornets—8-9 rectly responsible for law enforcement—not the prosecuting attorney, by the way, or other local officials—was a legal point in where the late Gov. Frank Fitzgerald sought refuge during the post-inauguration. post-inauguration controversy over slot machines and other forms of gambling.

SHERIFF ON THE SPOT

His successor, Gov. Luren D.

Dickinson, made the same distinction when he instructed state police to investigate reported rioting in an automobile industrial center and to notify him if local officials were dodging their responsibility.

Prosecuting attorneys say that the remedy for disreputable liquor dives is to put the sheriff on the spot. Said William J. Miller, prosecutor of Delta county: "Call in your sheriff and other police agencies and tell them to clean house." A majority of the county prosecutors agreed that Miller's suggestion was sound. (And to this might be added one additional ingredient: Newspaper publicity. It was the latter, more than anything else, that restored the anti-gambling ban in Michigan this year).

The prosecutors agreed that saloon keepers, who sell liquor to minors, should be prosecuted for contributing to deliquency stead of letting the state commission deal out punishment in form of a revoked license.

And yet sheriffs and prosecutors can go no farther than public support them. To that extent, the ultimate responsibility rests ors have passed on to a newer with the men and women who arrangement. WASTED WORDS

Counsel was cross-examining a witness in an important case. He asked: "And so on October twentieth you say you called on Mrs. Smith. Now what did she say?" "I object to the question, ma lord," interrupted opposing counsel, relates Tit-Bits Magazine.

There ensued an hour's flerce asgument between counsel, and in the end the judge allowed the question. "And, as I was saying," continued counsel, triumphantly, called on Mrs. Smith. Now, what did she say?"

Nothing-she was out," was the reply.

MY TRIP to JAPAN

The sparrows are highly color ed and are very tame. One walked down my arm this afternoon a very friendly little fellow soft blue and orange, only to forsake me in a moment for the workman near me. The workman was as interesting as the bird. It gives me a queer twist to come from a room of every modern comfort to see men and wromen working in dress of the mucille ages and tools of the same vintage. Take this one cutting grass in the rock garden with a crude straight stick at the end of which was a short six-inch knufe. On his back a huge basket His round hat tight black stockings which ran into his light at any hospital sparred shorts for above his $4.50 to $3.50 species shorts for above kneek made him look as if he had just stepped out of a story grave; by ropes and a pole. strangers for as little as $1.98-legitimate $5 bills worth $5 anywhere. They have usually failed.

The reason is simple to see: Lack of confidence.

Their proposition sounded too good to be true, failed to arouse the confidence of the prospects, who were afraid to buy. No one trusted the seller because no one knew him. He might be a counterfeiter. Who knows! He migh: have some trick up his sleeve. Who knows? Better have nothing at all to do with him. Confidence is the mainspring of business. Without it no business can succeed and no product can be sold, because before any one of us is Charles Both willing to part with ANY times, on a wager, men have tried to sell $5 bills to whenever confidence is absent, no amount of any other qualities can take its place.

You have often bought something from someone you did not know, say a solicitor who succeeded in taking away your money at the door. Will you ever see him again? Will you get the goods you have paid for? Was it a miniature swindle? You wonder and worry.

You spend hours in painful doubt. Perhaps everything turned out all right. Even so, the profit went out of the transaction when you had to worry about getting your money's worth. Buy goods that are advertised from merchants who adver-There lies confidence. tise.

One of the chief services of newspaper advertising to consumers is that it denotes which merchants or products are worthy of confidence.

Because newspaper publishers are so jealous of their advertising colums and are quick to reject anything which does not live up to their standards, readers know that if a thing is regularly advertised in the newspaper it is worthy of their confidence.

As a matter of fact, the appearance of an advertisement in a newspaper is recommendation of the character and quality of the goods being advertised. Charles B. Roth
